Introductions

TELL US ABOUT YOURSELF

- Who are you?
- Where are you located?
- How long have you been team coaching?
- One or two sentences from your pre-work (to the right)

1–2 minutes maximum for all of the above!

1–2 sentences only — choose whichever resonates

- What does your cultural background assume about how a team functions well? (Who leads? Who speaks? How is disagreement handled? What does accountability look like?)
- What is happening right now — in your country, your industry, your community — that is shaping the teams you work with or aspire to work with?
- What systemic pressures, cultural shifts, or global forces do you think team coaches in your context most need to be awake to?
- What might your co-coaching partner's context illuminate about your own system that you can't easily see from inside it?
- Is there something about your cultural or systemic lens that you'd like your partner to understand early in your work together?

Use of self

- Use of Self is the choice by the coach (in awareness) to share their somatic experience (emotion or felt-sense) arising from the impact of the coachee in the here and now.
- As a team coach, we are part of the system and we are a valid source of data and reflection.
- “Use of self” involves courage, self awareness, being vulnerable, giving voice to other intelligences , and not being attached to being right,
